

whip stitch

1
Push the needle between layers being sewn and pull until you reach the knotted end of the thread.

2
Wrap the thread around both edges, and push your needle in at a 45° angle. Use your fingers to guide the thread as you pull it through.

3
Keep going until you are done, repeating the angled placement of the needle to achieve a straight looking stitch on the outside edge.